“ Bringing Hope and Life to the Prisoners ”

Dear Hope Partners and Friends,

April and May have been real exciting months as we went into many prisons and the Lord really moved. I will let Shelia tell you all about that. Meanwhile I want to praise God for a successful BBQ that will help us to catch up on things. Also thanks to Jim and Scottye Saul, and Gail Whiteman for all the work they did to make it successful! The Lord really blessed us to have been able to get Scottye to raise a lot of money to pay most of the Brisquets. I did not realize how high the costs was! One person paid over $4.00 a lb. for one but Scottye was able to get the rest for much cheaper. Right now our next need is a 15 passenger van that we are believing God for. For all the travel we do we really MUST GET A NEW ONE as we go way back in the sticks and drive many miles on country roads. Someone receiving this letter may even know a car dealer who would be able to donate one. We are a tax-Exempt organization. I now have my personal van almost at 200,000 miles and it is imperative that we get a new one. Pray for our editor in chief because the enemy has been attacking her health and lets agree for her healing; Joy Powell is her name. And pray for our ministry team to always be effective and godly as we serve the Lord together. FOLKS, GOD IS A GOOD GOD AND HE LOVES EACH ONE OF US. And I love all of you in Jesus Name!

From the Desk of Shelia Johnson:

Praise the Lord! I am so excited about all that God is doing. We have been blessed and privileged to have been connected with another prison ministry called The Gospel Blimp International Deliverance Ministry with Evangelist Tom Harris, the Founder and President and Apostle Ray Felder minister of music. We were invited to go to several of the crusades and minister and see God deliver and set free the captive. We have seen so many men saved and set free from the bondage of sin. Hope For All In Jesus has combined prison schedules with Gospel BLIMP schedule to go in the various prisons. I truly believe that God has strategically put these two prison ministries together for such a time as this. Thank you Jesus, God is awesome. Saints please continue to pray that God will touch the heart of his people to donate the land and the van for the ranch and the prison ministry.

"The greatest word is God, the deepest word is Soul, the longest word is Eternity, The swiftest word is Time, the nearest word is Now, the darkest word is Sin, the meanest word is Hypocrisy, the broadest word is Truth, the strongest word is Right, the tenderest word is Love, the sweetest word is Home, the dearest word is MOTHER. Happy Mother's Day!!!!!!!!!!!!!!

What’s happening?

NEEDS OF THE MINISTRY:

The ministry needs a brand new 15 passenger van. We have received a $10,000 donation towards the purchase price and while we are grateful to the Lord for that, we still need at least another 25 – 30,000 dollars to get the van including TTL & insurance, etc. Also we need about 100 acres of property to build the ranch for male and female prisoners and an apartment complex to help the families of inmates that are in prison. We intend to provide job training for mechanics and etc. This will also include a clinic. Please pray with us about these ministries.

I HAVE SOMETHING TO SAY...

Do you have something you’d like to announce? Is there an event at your church you’d like to publicize? Well, there is a place right here for you to do it! It’s free – it won’t cost you a dime. All you have to do is to send me an e-mail (joylavelle@yahoo.com) or let Ms. Shelia know and we’ll get it put in the newsletter so everyone can see.

I know no word more fitting to address you,
 No song, no poem I've ever heard,
 Is sweeter than just "God bless you".
 In these three little words may you find,
 All the joy the whole wide earth possesses,
 For there can truly be no joy,
 Unless indeed, God blesses.

Which God gave me to hold.
 He said, "Put all your sorrows in the black.
 And all your joys in the gold."
 I heeded His words, and in the two boxes
 Both my joys and sorrows I stored
 But though the gold became heavier each day
 The black was as light as before.
 With curiosity, I opened the black I wanted to find out why.

I might wish you wealth or wish you health,
 Or that good fortune might caress you.
 But wealth might bring sorrow,
 Or even health fail tomorrow:
 So I simply say, "God bless you".

Submitted by Shelia Johnson

And I saw, in the base of the box, a hole
 Which my sorrows had fallen out by.
 I showed the hole to God, and mused aloud,
 "Wonder where my sorrows could be..."
 He smiled a gentle smile and said,
 "My child, they're here with me."
 I asked, "Why give the boxes, God:
 Why the gold, or the black with the hole?"
 "My child, the gold is for you to count your blessings,
 The black is for you to let go."

Ice Cream Is Good For The Soul Sometimes

Last week, I took my children to a restaurant. My six-year-old son asked if he could say grace. As we bowed our heads he said, "God is good, God is great. Thank you for the food, and I would even thank you more if Mom gets us ice cream for dessert. And Liberty and justice for all! Amen!"

Along with the laughter from the other customers nearby, I heard a woman remark, "That's what's wrong with this country. Kids today don't even know how to pray. Asking God for ice cream! Why, I never!" Hearing this, my son burst into tears and asked me, "Did I do it wrong? Is God mad at me?"

As I held him and assured him that he had done a terrific job, and God was certainly not mad at him, an elderly gentleman approached the table. He winked at my son and said, "I happen to know that God thought that was a great prayer." "Really?" my son asked. "Cross my heart," the man replied. Then, in a theatrical whisper, he added (indicating the woman whose remark had started this whole thing), "Too bad she never asks God for ice cream. A little ice cream is good for the soul sometimes."

Naturally, I bought my kids ice cream at the end of the meal. My son stared at his for a moment, and then did something I will remember the rest of my life. He picked up his sundae and, without a word, walked over and placed it in front of the woman. With a big smile he told her, "Here, this is for you. Ice cream is good for the soul sometimes; and my soul is good already."

Sometimes, we all need some ice cream.

I hope God sends you some Ice Cream today!

Fragrant Living

<sup>18</sup> But I have all, and abound: I am full, having received of Epaphroditus the things which were sent from you, an odour of a sweet smell, a sacrifice acceptable, well pleasing to God. —Philippians 4:18

I'm grateful that God has given us the sense of smell so we can enjoy the many fragrances of life. I think of how much I enjoy something as simple as the fresh and inviting aroma of after-shave lotion in the morning. Or the mellow smell of fresh-cut grass in the spring. I especially enjoy sitting in the backyard when the delicate scent of my favorite roses fills the air. And then there are the savory aromas of delicious food.

So it catches my attention when the apostle Paul says that our generous acts of love toward others are like a "sweet-smelling aroma, an acceptable sacrifice, well pleasing to God" (Phil. 4:18). When we think of helping those in need, we usually think of it as the right thing to do—or even the Christlike thing to do. But Paul says that our intentional act of reaching out to meet someone's need actually fills the throne room of God with a fragrance that brings pleasure to Him.

We can please God with the aromas that rise from being a blessing to others! What an added incentive this is for us to perform deeds of kindness in His name.

Who might need your act of kindness today? Ask God to lead you to someone. Be a blessing. It's a fragrant thing to do! —Joe Stowell

Blessing others is a blessing to God.
