

To our Prayer Partners and Dear Friends:

I would like to thank each and every one of our faithful partners and team members and friends for enabling us to have such a blessed 35th year Christmas Banquet. We had such a wonderful time. The Word of God says:

And they overcame him by the blood of the Lamb, and by the word of their testimony; and they loved not their lives unto the death. Rev 12:11.

We had the three ex-offenders, Kendra Stagg, Johnny Steptoe, and L.D. Howard that blessed us by sharing their testimonies of how important it is to have christian volunteers coming into the jails and prisons giving hope to the incarcerated. The anointing of God was definitely in the house that night. I thank God for our guest speaker Pastor Anthony Perry that brought a mighty word titled: There Is Hope For All In Jesus (Drop It), a word of encouragement to continue the work. Everything was excellent, even the food. God gave us favor! The anointing of God was so heavy in the place that God moved by His Spirit on the caterer and she blessed us with all the food at no cost. Favor is not fair but then it wouldn't be Favor if it was. We want to thank New Covenant, Pastor Frank Mazzapica, Pastor Brenda Walker, Pastor Roger Obergon, Sis. Geraldine, the Sound and Music Coordinator and everyone else that enabled us to have such a successful evening. May God continue to bless each and every one of you and your family for your faithfulness. Please keep Bro Robert in your prayers he was under the weather this month and was unable to go to the Estelle and Cleveland units. However some of the team members were still able to go in with me and we had a blessed time in the Lord. Praise God for his virtuous healing Bro. Robert is now recovering. I want to thank God for our new member, Minister Lunetta Sims who blessed us in song at the Estelle Unit. Thank you all for your support we could not have done it without you.

Have a Blessed Christmas from all the Hope For All In Jesus Prison Ministry Team.

Christmas is a time for "giving up" sin...and selfish pleasures... a time for "giving in" surrender to Christ, acceptance of Him as King...a time for "giving out" a real giving, not swapping. (author unknown)

"Is any sick among you? Let him call for the elders of the church; and let them pray over him, anointing him with oil in the name of the Lord." James 5:14 (King James Version)

Creeping Christmas?

Thanks be to God for His indescribable gift! —2 Corinthians 9:15

I love Christmas. The celebration of the birth of Christ and the beauty and wonder of the season make it "the most wonderful time of the year" for me. In recent years, however, the season has been accompanied by a growing irritation. Every year "Christmas stuff" comes out earlier and earlier—creeping all the way back to early fall.

Christmas used to be limited to December, but now we find radio stations playing Christmas music in early November. Stores start advertising Christmas specials in October, and Christmas candy appears in late September. If we're not careful, this growing deluge can numb us—even sour us to what should be a season of gratitude and awe.

When that irritation begins to rise in my spirit, I try to do one thing: Remember. I remind myself what Christmas means, who Jesus is, and why He came. I remember the love and grace of a forgiving God who sent us rescue in the Person of His Son. I remember that, ultimately, only one gift really matters—God's "indescribable gift!" (2 Cor. 9:15). I remember that the salvation Christ came to provide is both the gift and the Giver all wrapped up in one.

Jesus is our life all year long, and He is the greatest wonder. "O come, let us adore Him!" —Bill Crowder

Living God, I thank You for the unspeakable gift of Your Son. Draw my heart to Your own, that my worship to and gratitude for Your Son will never be diminished by the distractions of the world around me.

Jesus is our life throughout the year.

Christmas Word Search

Please make Note:

We have an announcement to make that has been a loooooong time in the making – it is now possible to make a donation to the ministry straight from the ministry website! And just in case you do not know what the website address is, it is HopeForAllinJesus.org. And while you're there, feel free to browse the entire website and see all the stuff that Paul has there. If you don't know who "Paul" is, he is Paul Oyler – one of me Ms. Audrey's sons. Yes, he is still involved in the ministry! Paul – thanks for all you do! We love you!

Look forward, backward, up, down, and diagonally to find these words from the Christmas story.
